Tazewell, Va., June 20.—Dan Cupid, who nearly always finds a way, was beaten to a standatill here this morning when Olerk Graham refused a martirege license to John Bassett, of Bluefield who wanted to make Miss Mary They outhfulness of the bride operated against the union of the couple, although she maintained that she was of the required a.

The young people were taken in hand by the Rev. J. H. Harman, who accompanied them to the courthouse and by the Rev. J. H. Harman, who accompanied to relieve the embarrassment of the young folks. As soon as their predicainent became known they took the first train out of town, going in the direction of Bristol. The young woman remarked as she left town. The next time I go on a trip of this kind, I'm going to know where I'm going.
